Upcoming Performances

Concert Band: High School Concert Band members will perform a joint Halloween themed concert at Whitney Point High School Concert Band on 10/30/18. Students will travel via SV bus to Whitney Point at 3 PM. The bands will rehearse and share dinner together, then will change into costume in time to take the stage for a 7:00 PM performance. Please join us for this fun evening showcasing the combined talent of over 150 musicians! More information, permission forms, and detailed itinerary will come home soon.

Orchestra: High School Orchestra members will perform at the High School Honor Society Induction on November 15, 2018. Students should arrive at 6:30 in concert all black.

Musical Scheduling

Missing your music family? Students who have had challenges scheduling Band, Chorus, or Orchestra this fall may still be able to be a part of these ensembles, and to be able to travel with us this spring.

See Mr. Apicella, Mrs. Miller, or Mrs. Olds for more information on how we can help you continue to follow your musical passion!

Photos!

The Yearbook Photographer will be tentatively come into all music ensembles during classes during the week before Homecoming to take group photos and candid rehearsal shots.

Fundraisers

The Susquehanna Valley High School Music Department is selling frozen pies and cookie dough in November. The order forms will be in the November newsletter and will be sent home with students.

On Saturday, November 18, 2017, the HS Music Department will host their annual Bake Sale as part of the SVTA Craft and Vendor Fair at SVHS. All HS Music students are asked to bake and/or work at this event. Sign-up sheets will come home in mid-October.

Hershey Park Performance Trip

The May 18, 2019 Hershey Park Performance plans are in the final stages. Look for more information to come home in November for this amazing adventure!
