

POSTING OF ANTICIPATED VACANCY

Susquehanna Valley Central School District
P.O. Box 200
Conklin, New York 13748
www.svsabers.org

SUPPORT STAFF

|                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                           |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| POSITION                                                                                                             | TEACHER AIDE – SPECIAL EDUCATION                                                                                                   |
| LOCATION                                                                                                             | Varies based on student need – Currently Assigned Brookside Elementary                                                                    |
| DESCRIPTION                                                                                                          | Provide support to special education students integrated into general education at all levels.                                            |
| QUALIFICATIONS                                                                                                       | Excellent communication skills, works well with students; commands respect; is patient, flexible, and adaptable to the needs of students. |
| WORK YEAR                                                                                                            | 10 month (September – June) 37 hours per week                                                                                             |
| SALARY                                                                                                               | $16.53 per hour                                                                                                                          |
| STARTING DATE                                                                                                        | September 2, 2025                                                                                                                         |
| DEADLINE for APPLICATION                                                                                             | March 4, 2025 – or – until position is filled                                                                                             |
| * TO APPLYSend Letter of Intent,Support Staff Application,and Broome CountyApplication to: | Dr. Catherine Kacyvenski, Assistant SuperintendentSusquehanna Valley CSDP.O. Box 200Conklin, NY 13748                         |

* Support Staff Applications are available at www.svsabers.org -or- SVCSD District Office, 1040 Conklin Rd., Conklin, NY 13748

Dr. Catherine Kacyvenski
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Date